RULES

OF

THE MONTREAL LIBRARY.

I.—The Library will be open from Eleven o'clock, A. M. till Four o'clock, P. M. every day, Sundays and Holidays excepted.

II.—The Library is solely appropriated to the use of the proprietors and Subscribers; and no others are admitted, except non-resident strangers, introduced by Subscribers.

III.—Any Proprietor or Subscriber may take out of the Library, and retain,

One Folio, ... Ten days.
One Quarto,..... Eight days.
Two Octavos, or smaller Volumes,... Six days.

IV.—No Subscriber to have more than one new book at a time, nor to keep it longer than four days; if a quarto, not beyond a week.

V.—Any person failing to return a book on the day appointed, is subject to a fine of five pence for each running day until it be returned or paid for; and is also, until then, deprived of the use of the Library; and the Librarian has particular orders to enforce this law.

VI.—When a fine exceeds four dollars, the excess may be compounded for by the Committee at their discretion, according to the circumstances of the case.

VII.—No books to be delivered from the Library to Proprietors or Subscribers, (or renewed,) without an order, in writing.

VIII.—Any Proprietor or Subscriber wishing to renew a book, must produce the same to the Librarian; but no new work can be renewed until it has been in the Library six months.

IX.—Proprietors or Subscribers residing in the country shall be entitled to keep all works six days longer, provided such works shall have been six months in the Library.

X.—The Proprietor or Subscriber who first applies for any book shall have it first; and the others in the order they apply, if they desire the Librarian to enter their names for that purpose; and when any subscriber makes application for a book that is engaged, the Librarian shall inform him when the time for reading it will expire; and if he does not apply for it the same day it is returned, (provided it be duly returned,) the Librarian may deliver it to another Subscriber.

XI.—If any Proprietor or Subscriber shall lend a Library book, or receive one from any other person than the Librarian, he shall forfeit four dollars, and be deprived the use of the Library until the forfeit be paid.

XII.—Subscribers residing in the country may be supplied with a larger quantity of works on paying double subscription.

XIII.—Subscribers are to give in their names and places of abode, to pay their subscriptions at the commencement, and not to have the use of the Library until they have done so; and, if required, to deposit the value of the books they may take away.

XIV.—Subscribers are entitled to an exchange of books once a-day, but not oftener; and one book to be considered as an exchange.

XV.—The Librarian shall keep an exact Catalogue of the Books, to be open at all times to the Subscribers; but it shall not be taken out of the Library. Subscribers will be furnished with printed Catalogues, upon application to the Librarian, and paying for the same.

XVI.—Terms of Subscription:—

Annual Subscribers, ...	1	5	0
Semi-Annual, ...	0	15	0
Quarterly, ...	0	10	0

XVII.—Any book or set of books, or the leaf of a book, whether blank or printed, that may be torn, damaged, or defaced by drawing or writing upon it, or otherwise injured in the hands of a Proprietor or Subscriber, becomes his, and must be paid for double the value with that of the set to which it belongs; and it is incumbant on every person to take care that the book is in good order before he takes it out, as he will be deprived the use of the Library until this rule is complied with.

XVIII.—That so long as Subscribers shall, through any cause whatever, keep a book or books in their possession, belonging to his Library, beyond the time subscribed and paid for, they shall be deemed Subscribers, and pay accordingly.

XIX.—To prevent disappointment and delay, Subscribers and Proprietors are to send a list of ten or twelve numbers taken from the Catalogue, of such books as they want, under their initials or signature.

XX.—When books are returned, they shall be delivered into the hands of the Librarian, in order that he may examine whether they have been injured or not.

XXI.—Proprietors and Subscribers are on no account whatever to move or displace books; and the Librarian has been directed to carry this order into effect strictly, (ladies excepted.)

XXII.—The Committee shall determine from tiime to time what books, newspapers, maps and periodical publications shall be admitted into the institution, but any proprietor or annual Subscriber may propose what publication he may think proper, by entering the title, and other particulars, in a book to be kept in the Library for that purpose.

XXIII.—No pamphlet or periodical publication is to be taken out of the Library room until one month after its arrival.

XXIV.—It is expected that silence be observed in the Library room.
